General Statement of Health & Safety for Farncombe Smith 1990 LTD T/A Farncombe Construction; Health & Safety at Work 1974

The company will comply with its legal duties in order to provide a safe and healthy working environment for its employees and others affected by the company's activities. It will take positive action to ensure that other contractor's employees, occupiers of premises and members of the public do not have their health and safety adversely affected by the work operations of the company. The only acceptable standard of health and safety, and for welfare facilities will be full and proper compliance with the requirements of legislation.

We will seek to ensure that companies with whom we contract or sub contract have a similar standard.

The company has nominated Mr Tim Harrison as having overall responsibility for health and safety. To provide assistance in health and safety issues, the services of an external consultant may be used.

In particular our statement of general policy is:

- To consult on health and safety matters, with our employees and others who we may control to ensure this policy and arrangements for health and safety are kept up to date.
- To fully and effectively control the health and safety risks, arising from our work activities in cooperation with other contractors, clients, designers and where necessary the planning supervisor.
- To provide and ensure that all plant and equipment owned, used or hired by the company is safe to use and properly maintained, inspected and tested.
- To ensure that all equipment, materials and substances used by the company are used, handled and stored safely.
- To ensure all employees are provided with adequate supervisory training information and instructions to competently carry out their work activities.
- To ensure that accident and ill health prevention is provided for the highest priority, commensurate with business objectives, within all company operations.
- To ensure all working places are maintained in a health and safety condition
- To provide adequate resources, including sufficient finance and access to competent health and safety advice, to achieve the aims of this policy.
- To review and revise this policy statement at regular intervals and also where necessary due to changes in the company activities.
